

United States District Court
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING MOTION FOR ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

Enclosed you will find an application for admission to practice generally before this court and an admission questionnaire. You may seek admission to the bar of this court in any of three ways:

1. You may have a current member of the bar of this court move for your admission through Part A. The current member should complete Part A and you should complete the admission questionnaire. Please submit the completed forms and the $226 fee to the court.

OR

2. You may move for your own admission through Part B. You should complete Part B and the admission questionnaire. You must include a Certificate of Good Standing from the appropriate agency of the state in which you are licensed. Please submit the completed forms, the Certificate of Good Standing and the $226 fee to the court.

OR

3. You may move for your own admission through Part C. You should complete Part C and the admission questionnaire. You must include a copy of your Certificate of Admission for either the Northern or Southern District of IL in which you are licensed. Please submit the completed forms, copy of certificate, and the $226 fee to the court.

Complete either Part A or Part B or C.

After your motion for admission has been allowed, the clerk will send you an oath card if you completed Part A or B. You may appear before any judge (state or federal) and have the oath administered. The judge must sign the oath card and you must return it to the clerk of this court. When the completed oath card is received by the clerk, you will be enrolled in the bar of this court and you will receive a certificate of admission. Enrollment is not complete until the oath card is returned. Upon motion for reciprocal admission being allowed by the Court, movant shall be summarily admitted to the CDIL bar. No oath card is required for Part C.

Pursuant to CDIL-LR -83.5 (F), the court does not permit pro hoc vice admissions generally. At the discretion of the presiding judge, an attorney who is duly licensed to practice in any state or the District of Columbia may file a motion seeking leave to participate in a case while his or her application for admission to practice in the Central District of Illinois is pending. The application for admission must be submitted contemporaneously with the motion for leave.

Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated. If you have any questions concerning your admission to practice, please call the Clerk's office.

RULE 83.5 ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

(A) Qualifications for Admission to Practice.

Any attorney licensed to practice law in any state or in the District of Columbia must be admitted to practice generally in this court on written motion of a member in good standing of the bar of this court, or upon the attorney's own motion accompanied by certification of good standing from the state in which the attorney is licensed, and upon payment of the fees required by law and by Local Rule 83.5(E). On motion made at the time of the written motion for admission to practice, the presiding judge may waive the admission fees for any attorney employed full time by the United States, any state, or county.

Students of accredited law schools may, upon written motion of a member in good standing of the bar of this court, be provisionally admitted to practice and may appear in this court under the supervision and direction of the sponsoring attorney. There will be no fee for provisional admission.

(B) Oath.

All attorneys must, at the time of their admission to practice before this court, take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States, faithfully to discharge their duties as attorneys and counselors, and to demean themselves uprightly and according to law and the recognized standards of ethics of the profession, and they must, under the direction of the clerk of this court, sign the oath of attorneys and pay the fees required by law and by Local Rule 83.5(E).

(C) Admission to Practice in All Divisions.

Admission to practice generally in this court includes all divisions.

(D) Reciprocal Admission.

Any attorney admitted to practice in District Courts of the Northern or Southern Districts of Illinois must be admitted to practice generally in this court upon the attorney's own motion accompanied by a copy of his/her admission certificate from the district in which the attorney is admitted, the attorney's certification that he/she is in good standing generally and upon payment of the fees required by law and Local Rule 83.5(E). Upon motion for reciprocal admission being allowed by the Court, movant will be summarily admitted to the CDIL bar.

(E) Fees Assessed Upon Admission.

This court assesses a special $50.00 fee to be paid by each attorney at the time of admission to practice in this court. This $50.00 special fee is already included in the admission fee. This $50.00 fee will be deposited in the District Court Fund, see Local Rule 83.15.

(F) Admission Pro Hac Vice.

The court does not permit pro hac vice admissions generally. At the discretion of the presiding judge, an attorney who is duly licensed to practice in any state or the District of Columbia may file a motion seeking leave to participate in a case while his or her application for admission to practice in the Central District of Illinois is pending. The application for admission must be submitted contemporaneously with the motion for leave.

(G) Unauthorized Practice.

All attorneys who appear in person or by filing pleadings in this court must be admitted to practice in this court in accordance with this Rule. Only attorneys so admitted may practice or file pleadings in this court. Except as provided in Local Rule 83.5(F), upon entry of appearance as an attorney of record, the entry of appearance must include a certification that the attorney is a member in good standing of the bar of this court.

Any person who, before his or her admission to the bar of this court, or during his or her suspension or disbarment, exercises in this district any of the privileges of a member of the bar in any action or proceedings pending in this court, or who pretends to be entitled to do so, may be adjudged guilty of contempt of court and appropriately sanctioned.

(H) Changes Reported to the Clerk of This Court.

If at any time after admission any relevant circumstances change for an attorney (e.g., name, address, phone number, e-mail address, disciplinary status), he or she must notify the clerk of this court in writing of such change within 14 days.

(I) Admission.

Admission may be in person, by mail, or electronically. Procedures for admission will be prescribed by the clerk of this court. Admission is deemed to be as of the date the oath card is received by the clerk.

(J) Pro Bono Panel.

The Pro Bono Panel of this court consists of all attorneys admitted to practice in this court whose place of business is in the Central District of Illinois. Attorneys employed full time by the United States, the State of Illinois or a county are exempt from service on the panel. Attorneys appointed pro bono to represent litigants may not enter into any contingent fee arrangement with their clients concerning the subject case. Statutory fees and expenses may be awarded to a pro bono attorney as provided by law.

Any attorney appointed to represent an indigent party in a civil proceeding before this Court may petition the Court for reimbursement of expenses incurred in preparation and presentation of the proceeding, subject to the procedures and regulations contained in the plan of this Court adopted June 1, 2000, governing reimbursement of expenses from the District Court Fund.
