

Central District of Illinois
Civil prisoner cases needing Pro Bono Counsel

Any attorney interested in helping as Pro Bono counsel may contact the Pro Bono Coordinator for the Central District of Illinois, Marleen Cooke at 217-492-5204 or Marleen_Cooke@ilcd.uscourts.gov.

The Central District of Illinois Plan for Recruitment of Counsel has a cap of $1,000.00 for reimbursement of expenses.

.

22-3033 Reynold v Hogan - Mr. Reynolds has a medical claim, in violation of his Fourteenth Amendment Due Process rights, against certain staff members at the Christian County Jail and a Monell claim against the Jail Administrator based upon the Jail's policy of denying medication because it was too expensive. Mr. Reynolds has a sixth grade education. Defendants have filed a motion for summary judgment, and Plaintiff says that he cannot respond without the assistance of counsel.

23-4003 Holmes v Wexford - Plaintiff Montrell Holmes alleges a deliberate indifference claim in violation of his Eighth Amendment rights to his serious medical needs.

23-4011 Williams v Awada, et al. – Plaintiff Dahnyah Williams Complaint states two claims: (1) a deliberate indifference claim in violation of Plaintiff's Eighth Amendment rights against the individually named Defendants and (2) a Monell claim against Defendant Wexford Health Sources, Inc.