I feel like I should ask Tommie about going out because I normally would but I don't know how much power I'm giving him right now.

I'm deviating from the norm in that part of me doesn't give a shit what he thinks

Well

I am going to this no matter what

I'd love it if you were with me

I'm sorry if I seem stressed out, there was a bit of an emotional altercation this morning

Tell me about it kitten

Daddy told me he'd take me to work this morning and I checked with him a bunch of times making sure it would be ok. Ash is accusing me of disrespecting her time and authority and of being emotionally of being emotionally unstable, rude, ungrateful.

I dont have interactions like that

Like...if someone were to accuse me of that i would probably assume they're projecting

It's only getting worse
