

United States v. Brendt Christensen
Case No. 17-20037

Transcript of Jail Call – July 17, 2017, at 12:47 p.m.

BC: Brendt Christensen

MC: Michael Christensen

5:00

BC: We don't know what happened to the girl. Right? That's...

MC: Do what?

BC: That's what...

MC: Oh, yeah.

BC: ...happened to the girl, right?

MC: Right.

BC: ...and that's what [Overlapping - Unintelligible]

MC: Oh, yeah.

BC: The possible punishment is different depending on if they know or not.

MC: Absolutely

BC: So... [Unintelligible]

MC: [Unintelligible] The thing is

BC: We don't know. I don't know what happened to her. You know, like...

MC: I mean, to me it's fairly obvious; you know, let her out, she probably looked bewildered not knowing where she was, which is easy prey. Somebody watched it, and they could've, you know, not kidnapped her necessarily, just did whatever, you know?

BC: Yeah, but, I mean, I mean, what I mean is, um, we don't know what evidence they have...

MC: Right.

BC: [Unintelligible] don't know what happened to her. So, the charges they pursue is going to depend on if they know what happened to her.
