

United States v. Brendt Christensen
Case No. 17-20037

Transcript of Jail Call – September 2, 2017, at 3:30 p.m.

BC: Brendt Christensen

MZ: Michelle Zortman

25:27

BC: So something I've finally realized, right? So, they have that recording of me, right? And, I'm sure you can kind of guess what was said on it, right?

MZ: Yeah.

BC: Like, you, you heard news reports and stuff with people...

MZ: Mmhmm

BC: ...like, you can kind of guess, right?

MZ: Yeah.

BC: And, that's probably going to be played during the trial. Think of what the news is going to do with that.

MZ: Well, [unintelligible] that's already... that's like the biggest thing that's been in the news, talking about her, so...

BC: They haven't heard the recording though.

MZ: No, they haven't, but they've had – it was summarized in the affidavit, or whatever that dumb thing is.

BC: It was summarized, yes, however –

MZ: Like it has not been quoted, but they described what you said.

BC: I know, but they didn't describe everything, and I'm just thinking, like – they're gonna have quotes, I'm sure they're gonna play it and all that kind of stuff, right? And it's gonna... I'm not gonna look good. Yeah...and I have to prove that I'm innocent at this point, you know? It's just, um, as I've said they're, they're gonna have like two weeks of things trying to make look bad and it's gonna be me against all of that, you know?

MZ: Yeah.

BC: But I can do it, I know I can. And I know I can because I'm innocent and I, I know what happened, and I didn't do anything wrong.
