

United States v. Brendt A. Christensen
Case No. 17-20037

Transcript of Phone Call on
June 23, 2017, at 15:56:42

BC: Brendt Christensen

TB: Terra Bullis

BC: I'm frustrated.

TB: What?

BC: I'm just frustrated.

TB: What's going on?

BC: I'm just going to talk to her about it and [Unintelligible] she doesn't let me.

TB: About, about just having something to drink?

BC: Yeah [Unintelligible] but she won't let me.

TB: She won't let you talk about other things either?

BC: I can't [Unintelligible].

TB: I'm sorry she's not letting you talk. That's, that's frustrating.

BC: Yeah it is.

TB: You can talk to me about anything.

BC: I know.

TB: I know it might not be the same.

BC: I just want to have fun and I want to see you. I don't think she realizes, like, I'm also going through a lot right now but like...and I'm trying to be there for her but...not even close to what I'm going through [Unintelligible] like if this goes south [Unintelligible].

TB: What do you mean if this goes south? I thought they stopped following you.

BC: They did but like they're not finding her. Like they know they're desperate and what happens if they come back to me? Like, these are not like small things, you know?

TB: Yeah.

BC: [Unintelligible] I will be in prison for life. And she doesn't understand that.

TB: Yeah.

BC: I just want [Unintelligible] and she tells me to not mention it ever again.

TB: What can I do?

BC: You called me. That's more than I expected.

TB: What?

BC: You called me. That's more than I expected.

TB: I, I wasn't by my phone. I was downstairs doing some stuff and I came back and I saw your messages and I, I wanted to make sure you were okay. Like, I mean, I know you're not okay but...

BC: I'm okay.

TB: I had to call you.

BC: I really appreciate it.

TB: I care about you a lot.

BC: I know.

TB: I'm sorry she's being frustrating.

BC: Yeah. I do really appreciate you calling.

TB: Yeah, like you can text me if you want. It's kind of hard to hear you. You're a little bit muffled but if you want to text like you can text me.

BC: I will.

TB: I'll be here.

BC: I love you. I love you, Bunny.

TB: Love you.

BC: Bye sweetie.

TB: Bye. *Hangs up phone* Alright that was about 4 o'clock. It must've started a little bit before 4. Umm, it looks like Brendt had a series of texts, umm, that I was sent and it sounds like he mentioned drinking to his wife and Michelle did not like that. She told him never to mention it again. Umm, he said he wanted to share his feelings with her, umm, but she wouldn't let him. So I will go ahead and get a copy of the texts over and just send all this in an email. I'm gonna go ahead and turn this off for now. Oh and it is, just want to get a date on here, umm it's Friday, June 23rd. So, that'll be on here. I'm assuming that'll just kind of stay on here cause I don't think I'm gonna see Brendt till after the weekend but I'll just keep this on here. That way, it's, it's there.

[End of Recording]