Standing Order No. 22-mc-3002

CLERK OF THE COURT
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

STANDING ORDER REGARDING CONTINUANCES OF
INITIAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCES IN CRIMINAL CASES
SCHEDULED BEFORE JUDGE McNAUGHT

The following rules shall apply to any motion to continue an initial pretrial conference in a criminal case set before U.S. Magistrate Judge Karen L. McNaught, and therefore continuance of the trial date before a U.S. District Judge:

- A. The motion shall be filed no later than two days prior to the scheduled initial pretrial conference;
- B. The motion shall state a specific case-related reason for the request;
- C. The motion shall state specifically the amount of time requested for continuance of the initial pretrial conference and trial date;
- D. The motion shall state whether the Government has any objection to the motion; (Assistant U.S. Attorneys are directed to quickly respond to defense counsel's inquiry as to objections)
- E. Separate motions shall be filed by each defendant in a multi-defendant case.
