CHAMBERS OF
COLIN S. BRUCE
U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE

I. GENERAL RULES FOR THE CONDUCT OF COUNSEL IN THE COURTROOM AND DURING TRIAL

- I. Only counsel and parties are to be seated at counsel table. Also, only members of the bar are to be seated inside the rail and in the well of the Court, unless the Court specifically authorizes otherwise.
- II. Counsel will refer to court officials by their titles and not by their first or last names (i.e., "The Clerk", "The Court Reporter", "The Marshal", etc.). Counsel are also asked to refer to each other as "Mr.", "Miss", or "Mrs.", rather than by their first names.
- III. In jury trials, as a general rule, Court will convene at 9:00 a.m., take a mid-morning recess, break for lunch from Noon to 1:30 p.m., take a mid-afternoon recess, and adjourn for the evening at 4:30 p.m.
- IV. Counsel are requested to either go across to the attorney/witness room themselves to call a witness, or to arrange for an associate to do so. The Marshals and Court Security Officers (CSOs) are in the courtroom for security purposes only and are instructed not to engage in any activity other than security protection for the Court, the jury, counsel, and the attending of juries.
- V. No food or drink will be permitted in the courtroom at any time, other than the water on counsel tables. Also, newspapers are not to be read in the courtroom.
- VI. No electronic devices which beep, ring, buzz, or whistle (e.g., cellular phones, alarm clocks, pagers) are to be used in the courtroom. Should an electronic device make a noise in some disruptive manner, the owner of the device shall surrender it to the courtroom deputy who will shut the device off and retain possession of the device until the close of court in lieu of the individual being held in contempt.
- VII. Counsel must not waste jurors' time. Consequently, counsel should:
 1. arrive in the courtroom on time for all scheduled court appearances;
 2. raise anticipated legal arguments regarding evidence, witnesses, etc., at the beginning of the day prior to the scheduled arrival of the jury, after the jury has been relieved for a break, or after the

- jury has been relieved for the day;
3. request side-bars only when absolutely necessary; and
4. be well prepared.

VIII. Counsel must address themselves only to the Court except during opening statements, closing arguments, and examination of witnesses. Consequently, counsel should address the Court and:

1. not address comments to opposing counsel;
2. not ask jurors questions (i.e., “Can you see this exhibit?”);
3. not address comments to the court reporter (i.e., “Read that back”);
4. not address comments to the Clerk of the Court; and
5. not instruct witnesses but rather request that the Court give the instruction.

IX. Counsel must stand when addressing either the Court or the jury and use the podium when examining witnesses or during opening statements and closing arguments so that the court reporter can accurately transcribe the proceedings. Also, counsel and the parties must stand when the jury enters and exits the courtroom.

II. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE IN CRIMINAL CASES

- I. Prior to the final pretrial conference, the Government must file a statement of the case, witness list, exhibit list and proposed jury instructions. Defendants may also file a statement of the case, witness list, exhibit list and proposed jury instructions.
- II. Any proposed voir dire questions must be filed prior to the final pretrial conference. General voir dire questions will not be accepted after the final pretrial conference.
- III. Objections to any of these filings are due the Friday prior to trial.
- IV. Motions in limine are due two weeks prior to the date set for the final pretrial conference. Responses are due one week prior to the final pretrial conference.

III. INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING JURY SELECTION

The following is a description of the struck panel method by which the jury will be selected in proceedings before Judge Bruce. There are many variations on this basic technique, and it is important that counsel understand exactly what procedure will be followed. The procedure requires counsel to take more careful notes and to observe more panelists than under the traditional jury selection method.

Judge Bruce will conduct a voir dire of a number of panelists computed by totaling the following: the number of jurors to be selected, the number of alternates to be selected in a criminal case (generally 2), and the number of peremptory challenges. Thus, in a single defendant criminal case in which the defendant has 10 and the Government 6 peremptory challenges, plus 1 challenge each with respect to alternates, Judge Bruce will voir dire 32 panelists.

After Judge Bruce has voir dired the panel, the panel will be temporarily removed from the courtroom, or the attorneys will approach the bench or retire to Chambers, as the Judge directs. The first order of business will be to determine whether there are any challenges for cause. If there are any challenges for cause, the removed panelists will be replaced by inserting new panelists from the venire in their slots so that there is a full panel before any peremptory challenges are exercised. Judge Bruce will then complete the voir dire of panelists added as a result of challenges for cause, if any.

The exercise of peremptory challenges will follow next, while the jury is outside the courtroom. Counsel will exercise a challenge by indicating the name of the juror challenged.

In a single defendant criminal case, the defendant exercises 2 challenges and the Government 1 challenge for four rounds, then each side exercises 1 challenge for two rounds, making a total of 10 and 6. In each round, the Government will exercise its challenges first.

Note that a party may waive its right to challenge but may not reserve its challenge. Counsel may not say, "Well, we will pass this time and take 2 the next time." Also note that challenges may be made to any of the panelists regardless of where that panelist appears in the array.

When each side has exhausted its peremptory challenges, the first 12 names unchallenged constitute the jury in a criminal case.

After the 12-person jury is selected in a criminal case, each side has 1 additional challenge which is exercisable only with respect to the alternates, who are selected from the remaining unchallenged panelists after the jury has been selected. These final two challenges will occur once the other peremptory challenges have been exercised.

Jurors are excused only after all challenges have been exercised.

IV. CONDUCT TOWARD THE JURY

- A. Counsel may not, under any circumstances, communicate with a juror during the pendency of a trial and may do so after the conclusion of the trial only with prior permission from the Court.
- B. The Court will conduct voir dire examination. If counsel has particular, non-routine questions which they would like the Court to ask, those questions should be presented to the Court in writing prior to the final pre-trial conference.
- C. Counsel and the parties shall not extend common courtesies to any juror, including greetings, holding a door or elevator, etc.

V. EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

- A. As previously stated, counsel should not instruct witnesses, but instead request the Court for an instruction.

- B. Counsel should not ask a witness to leave the witness box, but instead request that the Court grant the witness the right to leave the box at the conclusion of the testimony or for demonstrative reasons.
- C. When more than one attorney represents one party, only one attorney may question each witness, and only the questioning attorney may object to opposing counsel's questions of that witness.
- D. Counsel should ask leave to approach a witness with an exhibit the first time, and need not repeat the request for that witness thereafter.
- E. Counsel should not obstruct any juror's view of the witness with their person or an exhibit.
- F. Counsel should be mindful of the court reporter and not speak too quickly or begin a new question prior to a witnesses' completion of the answer to the previous question.
- G. When counsel has completed the examination of a witness, counsel should not address themselves to opposing counsel (i.e., "Your witness"), but instead address themselves to the Court (i.e., "Those are my questions," "I have no further questions," or "Thank you, Mr. Witness").

VI. OBJECTIONS

- A. Counsel should attempt to limit their courtroom objections by motions in limine which should be in writing and filed two weeks before the final pretrial conference. The Court will not consider motions filed after the final pretrial conference. The Court will deem such motions as untimely.
- B. Counsel should stand when making an objection. District rules require counsel to stand whenever addressing the Court.
- C. Counsel should very briefly state the grounds for an objection at the time the objection is made (i.e., "Objection. Argumentative.").
- D. If counsel wishes to argue an objection or make a record, they should not do so in front of the jury, but instead must request a side-bar. All side bars should be kept to a minimum and the Court frowns on requests to have the jury frequently taken from the courtroom. The Court encourages counsel to anticipate evidentiary problems and handle as many objections as possible prior to trial or at the beginning of the morning or afternoon before the jury enters the courtroom.
- E. Once an objection is made, before proceeding to another question, the questioner should either wait for a ruling or ask to withdraw the pending question. The questioner should not respond to the objection unless asked by the Court to do so.

VII. EXHIBITS

- A. Pursuant to District rules, always pre-mark your exhibits, in the same manner they are marked on the final pretrial exhibit list(s), and exchange them with opposing counsel.
- B. Each item, including pages, in a group exhibit must be marked.
- C. Always show exhibits to opposing counsel before showing them to a witness.
- D. If counsel wishes an exhibit to be published to the jury, they should ask for the Court's permission. If allowed, the Court will instruct the Court Security Officer to pass the exhibits to the jury or the Court may allow them to be published by electronic means. Exhibits may not be published before they are admitted into evidence. There should not be questioning of a witness while the exhibit is published.
- E. Disputes over the admissibility of exhibits must be raised outside the presence of the jury, preferably in a motion in limine.
- F. As exhibits are used during trial (whether admitted or not admitted), they become the sole responsibility of the Courtroom Deputy. Per rules, exhibits are not to be tampered with, altered, or removed from the courtroom (unless money, drugs, guns, etc. are substituted with photo).

VIII. JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- A. Proposed jury instructions must be e-filed with the Court prior to the final pre-trial conference. Counsel is directed to email the proposed instructions to chambers to facilitate any revisions which need to be made during trial.
- B. Jury instructions should be double-spaced. Pattern jury instructions must be used if there is a relevant Seventh Circuit pattern instruction. Non-pattern instructions are discouraged unless necessity compels their usage.

IX. CONDUCT DURING JURY DELIBERATION

- A. Counsel should furnish the Clerk of the Court with a telephone, cellular phone, or pager number where they can be reached when the jury indicates that it has reached a verdict or when the jurors have a question that needs a response from the Court.
- B. Counsel should be able to arrive in the courtroom upon receiving a call within no more than fifteen minutes after being contacted by the Court.
- C. REMEMBER, counsel may not question jurors after a verdict has been reached without prior approval from the Court.
