In re: MANUEL RAUL REYES-PENA

No. 13-mc-56

ORDER

RICHARD MILLS, U.S. District Judge:

“Self-defense is nature’s eldest law.”
~John Dryden

Just as an individual has a right to protect himself, the Court, too, has a right to protect itself (and scarce judicial resources) from abusive litigants who have repeatedly proven themselves to be a burden on the system by litigating a host of frivolous, vexatious, and malicious actions.

The Court is in receipt of eleven pages from Manuel Raul Reyes-Pena.

It purports to be a complaint against the Chair of the Federal Election Commission, challenging the election of President Obama. It is rambling, unintelligible, and full of gibberish. President Obama’s name is misstated and a crude word is used as part of his name. One of the pages has a sticker from a “Chiquita”-brand banana affixed to it.

Although Reyes-Pena is new to this Court, he has long been a problem litigant in in federal courts throughout the United States. He is currently housed at the United States Penitentiary at Terre Haute, Indiana.

The Court will not allow Reyes-Pena to waste scarce judicial resources within this district.

Ergo, this action is hereby DISMISSED.

The Clerk is directed to add Manuel Raul Reyes-Pena, a/k/a Manuel Raul Reyes Pena, a/k/a Manuel Raul Reyes Pena Montero, to the list of restricted filers. Any further pleadings submitted by Reyes-Pena shall be returned unfiled.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
